

Course No.	Course Title	No. of Units			Pre-requisites
		Th.	Pr.	Credit
MATH 482	Graduation Project	3	-	3	Finishing 95 credit hours & permission of the department

Course Objectives:

- Explore new topics of mathematics that are not covered in other courses
- Make a time table to organize their work after choosing the topic of research.
- Use different resources to gather information about new topics.
- Write a paper in mathematics using scientific word or Microsoft word etc.
- Make a presentation using the computer software like power point.
- Give a talk on the mathematical topic of research.

Course Description:

This is a supervised project that emphasizes on scientific research of a mathematical topic of interest and “writing” mathematics. It includes both oral and written reports of the topic of research by the student.

Main Text Book:

Depends on the subject of the research.